CLEWS TAKES CHEERFUL VIEW

In his special letter of January 11, Henry Clews of New York says that "since January 1 the stock market has been making time, showing a distinctly better undertone without any pronounced increase in activity or strength. Underlying conditions are certainly better than a month ago." January disbursements were estimated at about $245,000,000, which had not yet appeared in the investment market to any extent. In big flotations Baltimore & Ohio had led the way with a $64,000,000 issue. The present ease of the local money market has already had the effect of starting gold exports. The loss of between $300,000,000 and $400,000,000 by the Balkan war aggravated a strain in the European money markets caused by excessive speculation, and exports of ten millions in gold to Europe were likely to be increased to ten million dollars before the demand was satisfied.

"That we should be shipping gold at this season is somewhat unusual," says Mr. Clews. "In spite of the return of $40,000,000 or $50,000,000 American securities at the time of the Balkan outbreak, this country should still have a liberal credit abroad, considering the large excess of exports over imports which continued through 1912. The unusual character of this movement emphasizes two points. First, the exceptional strain in Europe, and, second, our ability and readiness to give financial aid to Europe. The Bank of England rate remains unchanged, loans having been reduced $54,000,000 this week and the reserve increased $13,400,000. In all probability an advance in the bank rate would have occurred had we insisted upon importing gold a few weeks ago; as was within our power. Once more Europe is depending upon New York for financial aid in time of stress."

Mr. Clews refers to the judicial and legislative developments in Washington and concludes as follows:

"The unfavorable effects of tariff and trust agitation have been pretty thoroughly discounted. So, too, has the lessened activity of business, gold exports and the Balkan war. Prices for many of the best stocks and bonds are at a figure that yield very attractive returns, especially when compared with the recent fall in money rates. Cheap money usually means better prices for stocks, and in view of the sharp decline, from 5 to 20 points in the best shares during December, the market is now entitled to a reasonable recovery. There is a steadily improving demand for investments which will become more marked as the month advances. Bonds are already improving. January disbursements were much larger than usual, and in spite of the increased cost of living, a goodly portion of these funds will seek reinvestments. Taking the situation as a whole, we are still inclined to the more hopeful views expressed in these advices a week ago. The situation is by no means entirely an optimistic one, but the business mind as well as the political mind has been over-impressed with pessimistic views, and it is time to assume a more cheerful attitude in order to get back to the normal and recover our balance financially as well as politically. For the time being at least the market will most likely have the support of powerful banking interests who have underwritten the new flotations."

COURT TAKES CHILD FROM SICK MOTHER

At the bedside of the ill and widowed mother Judge Whitney conducted a juvenile court yesterday, legalizing the adoption of the baby of Mrs. Maggie Hundorp by Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Quintal, of 981 Dowsett Lane. Mrs. Hundorp's husband is said to have deserted her some time ago and she confessed her inability to care for the infant. Though confined to her bed, she was strong enough to raise to a sitting position as she took the oath of renunciation to a mother's right and to sign the necessary papers.

The foster mother, the clerk of the court and the probate officer were present. The child had already been named "Dorothy," but the foster mother will conduct a christening at its new home today giving her a new name.

25 CENT "DANDERINE" FOR FALLING HAIR AND DANDRUFF—GROWS HAIR

Don't Pay 50 Cents for Worthless Hair Tonics — Use Old, Reliable, Harmless "Danderine" — Get Results

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverish and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast.

A little Danderine tonight—now—anytime—will surely save your hair. Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's

THREE SUGAR STOCKS RISE

With considerable trading between boards, and a small amount of business at today's session of the stock exchange, prices show a substantial improvement. While there are no declines, Ewa, Hawaiian Sugar and Onomea have advanced.

Hawaiian Commercial is steady at 32.37½ for 5 and 25 shares in recess, with a quarter more being asked. Onomea sold up three-eighths to 32.37½, in lots of 65, 29 and 15 shares. Pioneer is unchanged at 26.50 for 35 and 10 shares, a point more being now asked. Brewery holds 24 for 50 shares and Pahang Rubber 19.87½ for 15 shares reported.

On the board Oahu sold at 23.37½, which is still the asking price, two lots of 5 shares each changing hands. Hawaiian sugar sold up three-quarters of a point to 36.25 for 50 shares. Five shares of Ewa sold up three-quarters to 26 and 5 more brought a quarter point better.

HILO JAILER HOLDS PRISONER OVER TIME

HILO, January 20.—News of more trouble in the Hilo jail has leaked out to the effect that, through an error in bookkeeping, Panlu, a Filipino, had been kept in jail four days more than his sentence called for and that, to appease him, Jailer Maby paid him a sum of money.

The Filipino was arrested on December 4, and was sentenced to serve thirty days in the jail. On January 9 he was released. He at once made a demand for indemnity, and as Jailer Maby refused to give him the amount which he demanded, Panlu took the matter to an attorney. The rest of the matter was taken up by County Attorney Beers, who states that the Filipino was actually kept in the jail four and a half days longer than his sentence called for. An offer of ten dollars by Maby failed to soothe the feelings of the Filipino, and the offer was turned down. Panlu taking his complaint to another attorney. This attorney, on the other hand, came to Beers and offered to settle the matter for the trifling consideration of three hundred dollars, but Beers could not see through this and came back at the attorney with an offer of $22.50, figuring the time which the Filipino spent in the jail after his sentence had expired, at five dollars a day, and this was, according to Beers, more than the Filipino could "earn working by the day."

The matter was dropped for a time and then the Filipino came back and offered to drop the matter for the $22.50, with an additional $15. After considerable discussion this amount was cut down to $50, which probably ended the matter.

TO DEDICATE TABLET TO GENERAL ARMSTRONG WEEK FROM TOMORROW

As a tribute to his work toward greater education, the memorial tablet which has been erected in honor of the late General Armstrong will be dedicated at Punahou Thursday afternoon, Jan. 30, at 3:30. This day is considered especially appropriate for the ceremony as it is the anniversary of the birth of Armstrong.

Following the dedication ceremonies, W. R. Castle will speak upon "Armstrong in Hawaii," in which he will tell of the influence which Hawaii had on the educational theories of the general which resulted in the founding of Hampton College. Dr. N. B. Emerson will tell the effects of Armstrong's college course at Williams on his later career, and C. A. Cottrell will speak in behalf of the race for which Armstrong's educational work has done so much. Armstrong's school days at Punahou will be told by Rev. W. H. Gulick.

LOCAL AND GENERAL

The relatives of Mrs. Johanna Mascoto Fernandez wish to thank their friends for the sympathy and many floral offerings sent for the funeral.

The meeting of the Honolulu Ad Club for tomorrow noon has been postponed as plans are shaping for the first of the stereopticon lectures on advertising to be given some evening to be announced later.

A helmsman's error in sighting shore lights was responsible for the wreck of the Rosecrans off Astoria, when thirty-three men lost their lives.

Labor organizations are now busily engaged in raising over $1,000,000 to put up bonds to release the thirty-two union labor leaders jailed at Indianapolis last week.

OIL ASSESSMENT IS RESISTED

Local shareholders of the Norris-Midway Oil Company are not going to submit to the assessment of ten cents a share recently levied on the stock by the directors in California. Being a majority of the stockholder, the local investors in this company are likely to have their way. At a meeting on Monday representing 155,000 shares it was decided to take steps to resist the assessment. Accordingly G. H. Buttolph will leave for the coast in the steamer Sonoma on Saturday to present the case of the local stockholders.

So as to have as many of them backing Mr. Buttolph's mission as possible, a form of proxy and a power of attorney for him are lying at the office of Williamson & Buttolph for the signatures of stockholders.

GREAT ANIMAL FILMS SHOWN AT LIBERTY

The Alaska-Carnegie pictures at the Liberty this week are making the biggest kind of a hit. Pictorially, the photos are wonderful; as an achievement of the moving picture art they are even more wonderful. The photos were taken by L. I. Lane during the expedition that the Carnegie Museum of Pittsburgh sent to Alaska and Siberia to study animal life at close range. The lassoing of polar bears, on a short rope, too, give some idea of the wonderful life and movement of these pictures. The theater is showing them only one week. Each night the performance begins at 8 o'clock. There will be a Saturday matinee, and in the evening the pictures will be shown for the last time. They are mighty well worth seeing, especially for the children.
